NORTHCOTE HIGH SCHOOL

Established in 1926, Northcote High is a vibrant co-educational public school in the inner north of Melbourne. The school has a rich intellectual culture that promotes connection with the community and learning. Northcote High is a proudly local school appreciated by its community with an enrolment of some 1800 students across Years 7-12 and 150 staff.

Principal (Sue Harrap)

"We are proud of the education we provide to support global citizenship. We are a diverse and inclusive environment that understands and promotes global connections, global understanding and the sharing of international educational practice. Our students thrive in this inner-city and diverse community."

International Student Program Director (Lixia Wang)

"Students' happiness and progress are the daily focus of my job. Our school lives our values of Achievement, Humanity, Curiosity and Fairness."

A ROAD TO SUCCESS

At Northcote High we are proud of our students' accomplishments and achievements. For the last 90 years Northcote graduates have made an outstanding contribution to our community, providing leaders in different fields at state, national and global levels.

Our notable alumni include Dr James Cairns, former Deputy Prime Minister of Australia; John Cain, former Victorian State Premier; Don Chipp, former Federal Minister; Jac Nassar, chairman of BHP Billiton; professor Ken Inglis, a historian, to name just a few.

Today our young International Students continue to excel inspired by over 90 years of proud history and reputation. They work hard and strive to be their best as they create a new chapter in their life journey after Northcote High School.
